1. To form the card base, score the Thick Basic White card stock at 5 ½ inches. Using your bone folder, give it a good crease.
2. Using Multipurpose Liquid Glue, adhere the Old Olive card stock first, then the Berry Burst card stock, to the card base.
3. Adhere the Designer Series Paper to the card base, centering from top to bottom.
4. Locate the sheet of Designer Series Paper that features various drinks (see pic 1), and using your snips, fussy cut out two glasses (one tall and one short).
5. Die-cut the heart shape on the Timid Tiger card stock by using the next-to-largest heart die (Save the heart shape die-cut for another project if you want.)
6. Emboss the Timid Tiger card stock with the Plaster Painting 3D Embossing Folder.
7. Using Multipurpose Liquid Glue, adhere the tall glass to the Timid Tiger card stock. Parts will hang over the die-cut, so be careful not to get glue there.
8. Adhere Stampin' Dimensionals to the small glass and adhere slightly to the left of the tall glass.
9. Adhere Stampin' Dimensionals to the back of the Timid Tiger card stock. For the parts of the glasses that hang over, stack two Stampin' Dimensionals on top of each.
10. Center the Timid Tiger panel on the card base.
11. Stamp the sentiments in Berry Burst ink onto scrap Basic White card stock and fussy cut out. Pop up with Stampin' Dimensionals.
